Kathleen Tabor, Esquire

Trade and Support Industries Representative

Maryland
HORSE INDUSTRY BOARD

Ms. Tabor is a solo practitioner and the principle attorney of the Law Office of Kathleen JP Tabor, LLC. She has a general civil practice with a special focus on equine business, activities, and ownership. Kathleen is also a trained civil mediator and collaborate law practitioner. Kathleen has had a lifelong passion for horses. As a young girl she owned several horses and currently is the proud owner of a four-year old Morgan gelding, "Statesman Midnite Cowboy." Prior to entering law school, she was a licensed commercial carriage driver in the cities of Philadelphia and Baltimore and held a pari-mutuel teller's license with the Maryland Jockey Club. She is a founding member, and prior Chair of the Equine Committee, of the Animal Law Section of the Maryland State Bar Association (MSBA). She is a member of numerous State and National equestrian organizations. She is a member of the Maryland Farm Bureau Equine Committee and the Howard County Farm Bureau. She provides speaker services to equine clubs, breed and sport associations, as well as to her colleagues in the legal profession. She is a regular presenter at the Maryland Horse World Expo, and the Graham Equestrian Center's annual "Day of the Horse," and a panelist for the Maryland Horse Council "Equine Business Seminar," the Annual National Equine Law Conference in Lexington, KY, for the MSBA's "Solo and Small Firm Conference" and for the MSBA Animal Law Section programs on equine law and professions. She has authored numerous articles on equine legal issues and she is currently co-authoring a book on "Maryland Equine Law" with Jan I. Berlage, Esquire. Kathleen was appointed to the Board in 2009.
