

VETERINARIANS

MEET YOUR MHIIB REP.

John Lee Jr., DVM

Licensed Veterinarians
Representative

Maryland

HORSE INDUSTRY BOARD

John W. Lee, Jr. DVM resides in Rising Sun, Maryland where he and his wife, Janey Fassinger Lee VMD, own and operate, Dayspring Farm, a broodmare facility and Sham Felek Arabians. Dr. Lee is the senior partner at Unionville Equine Associates, P.C. an eight veterinarian practice that he established in 1978. Dr. Lee is a 1971 graduate of the University of Delaware and a 1974 graduate of Cornell University's College of Veterinary Medicine. He is presently the chairman of the Cecil County Agricultural Advisory Board which is a committee under the Cecil County Economic Development Department and is also a member of Cecil County's Equine Industrial Task Force, which is a subcommittee of the board. Dr. Lee is the Chairman of the Maryland Horse Industry Board-Health Advisory Committee and a member of both the American Veterinary Medical Association and the American Association of Equine Practitioners. Dr. Lee practices equine veterinary medicine in Maryland, Delaware and Pennsylvania and holds a license through the Maryland State Board of Veterinary Medicine.

To contact John about issues impacting your veterinary practice:

Email vets@horseboard.org

Phone 410-841-5861

To learn more about the Maryland Horse Industry Board visit us online at:

www.marylandhorseindustry.org